

King's Taunton

King's College, Taunton became the first team to retain the Independent Schools' Football Association (ISFA) Girls' Under 18 eleven-a-side cup. In addition, this is the third time in the past four seasons that they have lifted the trophy, underlining their status in girls' football. 718

Netball Champions

Pupils from Harrogate Ladies' College were crowned champions of the Challenger Vase Tournament when they travelled to Disneyland Paris to compete in the Junior International Netball Festival. The event took place over three days and featured 32 teams from around the world. 1059

Karting National Champs

Brentwood School's A Team was crowned British Schools Karting National Champions for the second year in succession with a 10-point winning margin. The team was made up of 16 year-old Iaroslav Kovale and Callum Brooks, plus 13 year-old Ethan Brooks. 792

Devizes to Westminster

Cokethorpe entered three K2 teams and a solo K1 kayak in the Devizes to Westminster Canoe Marathon race. They won both the U17s competition and the Junior Team competition. The 125-mile canoe race starts on the Kennet and Avon canal and finishes on the Thames at Parliament. 638

National Schools' Rowing

Headington School have been celebrating their success at the National Schools' Regatta. The boat club achieved six gold medals, a silver and three bronzes – and a new course record as well. This was the best ever result for Headington at this prestigious regatta. 639

Henley Classic swim

A team of open water swimmers from Taunton School came third in the inaugural Henley Classic Schools' Open Water Swimming Cup despite being the youngest team there. The race took place on the course of the Henley Royal Regatta in the early hours of a Sunday morning. 699

Feva Sailing Nationals

Norwich School U16 sailing squad won the 'Best Placed School' trophy in the RS Feva National Championships. The prestigious event, held at Torquay, involved 110 boats from clubs and schools around the country. It was Norwich School's first time at the competition. 813

Women's Cricket

Former England captain, Charlotte Edwards, visited Oakham School as part of the launch of the ICC Women's Cricket World Cup and to celebrate Women's Sport Week 2017. Oakham School was delighted to host two warm up matches and a number of practice sessions for the teams. 882